Onsted Community Schools Invites Candidates to Interview for Superintendent Position

At the Special OCS Board of Education Meeting on Tuesday, April 2nd, Onsted Community School board members selected six candidates to invite to interview for the Superintendent Position. These were selected from a pool of 19 well-qualified applicants that were presented to the board. Dr. Randy Liepa with Michigan Leadership Institute is the consultant assisting with the Superintendent search process.

Superintendent Head announced his retirement at the December 18th Board of Education meeting with an effective date of June 30, 2024.

The candidates that were selected are as follows:

Ryan Cunningham - former Ovid-Elsie Superintendent (2010-2022)

David Raleigh - current Superintendent Larue County Ky (2018- present)

Jodi Ferris - Fremont Schools Principal (2019-present)

Jonathon Royce - Charlotte Principal (2021-present)

Patrick Dillon - Napoleon High School Principal (2008-present)

Clara Howitt - Greater Essex County District Superintendent - Ontario, Canada (1994-2024)

The dates for the initial interviews will be announced once they are coordinated and confirmed with the Board of Education.

The second round of interviews as well as site visits will be scheduled following the initial interviews.

The Onsted Community School board plans for the new Superintendent to begin their new role on approximately June 1, 2024.
